

Webinar Agenda

Title: UNiTE to End Digital Violence Against All Women and Girls: Voices of Women with Disabilities on Online Safety and Inclusion

Date: 2 December 2025

Time: 14:00–15:30 CET

Platform: <https://events.teams.microsoft.com/event/20304ef5-63a4-4bb7-9e58-6219ad708dfe@872c5577-546b-4273-b3a5-ab13fa523b40>

Opening & Welcome (14:00–14:15 CET)

Mohammed Mohsen

Welcome participants

Jamie Bolling

Reflection on connecting disability justice and digital justice.

Binasa Goralija, Moderator

Introduce for opening reflections

Panel Session: Voices of Women with Disabilities on Digital Safety (14:15–15:10 CET)

Moderator

Josefin Brattberg, Sida's senior gender equality policy specialists

Official opening remarks, framing Sida's perspective on disability and gender inclusion, particularly for women with disabilities.

Tobias Holmberg

Insights on violence against women with disabilities, focusing on technology-facilitated gender-based violence, including online harassment, deepfakes, and hate speech, and discuss strategies for protection, support, and inclusive policy responses.

Fernala Sejmen-Banjac, Technical expert

Cyber-violence expert providing technical insights on online safety and mitigation strategies.

Nadina Imamović, regional WWD speaker (Bosnia)

Lived experience navigating online spaces and the intersection of disability and gender.

Q&A / Interactive Discussion (15:10–15:25 CET)

Open floor for participant questions and reflections.

Closing & Next Steps (15:25–15:30 CET)

Moderator and Jamie Bolling

Summary of key points and reflections.

Discussion of follow-up actions and potential global network for women with disabilities.

Technical Notes

Language: English, with International Sign Language interpretation and live captioning.

Contact for coordination: Binasa Goralija, binasa.goralija@myright.se

